

The Buzz this week ...

What an amazing World Book Day we had this week! The costumes from the children and staff were brilliant. Every class took part in a treasure hunt which the children thoroughly enjoyed. Book and reading related activities happened all day and many parents came into hear a story at the end of the day to finish. A huge thank you to all that helped organise and make this day possible. The message that reading is fun was certainly well communicated! We also have a Book Fair week all next week so please come along.

Don't forget it is Parents evening next Monday and Tuesday when your child's teacher or in some cases teachers will update you about their learning and progress, please remember to book an appointment ether via parentmail or through the school office.

Starting next Friday, for a trial period only, we are going to run our Sense of Accomplishment assembly at 2.45pm. If this new arrangement does not work it will return to the time of 9.05am.

Lastly to celebrate Anning House winning the house cup last term they will be invited to wear Mufti on Friday 13th March.

Thank you and have a lovely weekend.
